Great Bargains in Paper.
The assignee of Charles T. Aikens, violoncello and paper dealer, 164 William St., New York, has sold the entire stock for cash to Carter, Rice & Co., Corporation, of Boston. The stock, consisting of book, news, cover, writing papers, ruled and blank, and cardstock, is now being sold at private sale in lots to suit purchasers, at a great bargain. At the expiration of ten days Carter, Rice & Co. will dispose of the balance in Boston all goods remaining unsold. 166

WEALTH FOR BRAINS.
You are doubtless aware that patents are the protection of manufacturers for the goods they make, and almost every manufacturer is anxious to obtain a patent idea which his invention protects by patent, and by doing so secured for himself a monopoly. If you have a good invention, we will secure for you a patent, and the inventor receives wealth for the work of his brains, which in itself took little or no time.
The work of the patent attorney is to secure for the inventor "letters patent," which shall give him the best protection. This is important, as in order to have patent complete there are a great many technical details to be observed. In order to inventor to fully protect him.
For that reason you should have a thoroughly competent and honest attorney to handle your patent. We invite you to call and investigate our methods of doing business. If you cannot call, write to us our handbook on patents and lists of needed inventions. It is sent free.

patent, and by doing so secured for himself a monopoly. If you have a good inven-
no time.
inventor to fully protect him.
needed inventions. It is sent free.
We also sell and have connections for doing business in all parts of the world.
